“ Well tomorrow is a month since we lost you and it still hurts so bad. I feel so so awful you had to suffer the final weeks without pain meds. Our country needs healthcare for all and things would of been different and you'd still be here if you had regular checkups in recent years. You lost a job with great insurance after 23 years and this is why we need universal healthcare so others don't suffer like you had too I miss you and I love you Eric

“ Eric, your life was so tragically cut short by a series of of awful illnesses, so sad, and yet as much as any of us will miss you, we can revel and celebrate in the knowledge that you are in the most high place...in the mansion of our Lord and Savior, just where you most wanted to be.

How awful that such pain must first be endured before God's glorious and gracious gift. Thank you dear God.

Jesus first suffered greatly and paid for our sin. Thank you for sharing this beautiful gift of eternal life, in your presence with my cousin.

Eric, I pray that you are in the presence of God's glory and surrounded with music, songs, laughter and so much love and beauty and with somany that you loved so very dearly.

For now I'll say, "I love you and goodbye for now. I'll see you later".

“ My Dear Cousin Eric, I am so sorry for all the suffering you have been through in recent months. I have many fond memories of you as a child...and they are probably too numerous to mention right now. I will always remember with fondness and amusement your antics at the dinner table when my sister and I would visit and spend some significant time with your family. I also recall the memories of the time you participated as a member of our bridal party on the day that Jim and I got married. The last few times I saw you over a year ago, I never realized that we would be saying good-bye to you in the near future. It seems as though you left us far too soon...and I am so deeply saddened by the tragic circumstances of your passing. I wish that things had not been so difficult for you toward the end of your life. I find Comfort in knowing that you have an Eternity ahead of you spending time in the Presence of Our Lord Jesus...who I know you loved and spoke about many times. I trust that God will hold you in His Care and Safe-Keeping Forever. I send my love to you until we meet again in God's Heavenly Kingdom. With Much Love And Deep Sadness, Your Cousin Linda.

“BIG prayers for the loved ones of this family...”Grandpa” was a good man. he loved unconditionally and always had something to say wether it was nice or mean..he spoke his mind. i grew up knowing him as my grandpa and loved him so much. growing up i remember how serious he was about his video games and how he wanted everything a certain way, it was funny to me. i'll miss him dearly . -camron hendrickson

“Mr.Eric was a very loving and caring man. The love he had for my grandmother was second to none and I just knew that he would do anything to make her happy. I did not get to spend much time with him but from the times I did spend with him were amazing. I miss him and the joy he brought to our family. Until we meet again Mr.Eric .

“ Eric was a new member of our family. We accepted him for who he was not what he had or didn't have.

The best thing is he found TRUE LOVE in a young at heart woman named Gloria. She gave him ANYTHING he wanted from 300 dollar headphones to a pantry full of coffee, there was nothing in the life with Gloria did ever need. Eric I believe you are in a better place sitting under a giant weeping willows watching the sunset with your mother. Enjoy the peace and love you have found with your mother and remember you are loved on Earth as you are in heaven.

“ I'm not very good with words.....but many wonderful memories. From rubbing my back to help me fall asleep when I got a migraine or chasing me through the house catching me to tickle me.The glow in the dark godzilla feet you would scare us girls with,to hiding behind the fish aquarium and as I looked in you would open your eyes and I would scream & run...I will keep them memories plus so many more inside my mind and heart. Thank you for being a good sweet brother to your forth sister....I will love & miss you always. Love your younger sister Lisa(4th sister /horse) until we meet In Heaven....
