“ What a Blessing Cousin Eugene was! Eugene and I grew up together and lived close by each other. We shared the same middle name (from our grandfather). He was a jewel of a person and we did everything together while growing up from model airplanes to lake Geneva swimming, guitar playing, building tree houses, 8 track players, riding in his Plymouth Dodge car, etc. He was one of the smartest persons I ever met and was always doing something kind. Eugene was also one of the most considerate persons I ever met. He was four years my senior but always treated me with respect like a little brother. I think God gave me an older brother in Eugene who made a big, positive impression on my life. I thank God for that and gladly had opportunity to tell him so several years back. Of course he was modest when I told him this. Eugene will be missed.

Condolences to Lynelle, His Sons and families, Aunt Lewree, Cousins Tina, Gail, Shelia and families..

Goodbye Eugene, I will see you on the other side one day. You are now in Glory with Jesus, Daddy and Mama Curry, Uncle Shorty (his Dad), and little Cousin Sherry.

With Love and Respect,
Your Cousin,
Steven Eugene Christmas
